Addiction is a chronic health condition of epidemic proportions with physical, psychological, emotional and spiritual elements that costs our society over $400 billion each year. Over 22 million Americans and their families have yet to receive the continuing and holistic care they need to recover and become productive members of society.

There is Hope...

Over 23 million Americans are living in recovery and benefiting themselves, their families and our communities!!

Join us as we celebrate the lives of Georgians in recovery and our allies including family members and professional helpers, and Help us spread the message of HOPE!
